

COMMENCEMENT

Congratulations!

We look forward to celebrating with our graduates and their families.

ETIQUETTE GUIDELINES FOR COMMENCEMENT

- Please give yourself ample time to find parking and seating.
- Prohibited items:
 - Alcohol
 - Noisemakers of any kind (including airhorns and cowbells)
 - Pets
 - Silly string, confetti and glitter
 - Helium balloons
 - Drones
 - Signs, banners, flags, posters and placards
 - Laser pointers
 - Firearms, knives and other weapons
 - Coolers and wagons
 - Strollers and car seats
 - Oversized umbrellas
 - Backpacks, large bags/purses and luggage
 - Cans and glass bottles
 - Food
 - All other items the University may deem inappropriate
- Please turn off or silence your cellular phones and other electronic equipment to help ensure that all guests can hear and enjoy the event.
- Please avoid all unnecessary conversation and movement during the event.
- Be respectful. Individuals who engage in inappropriate or disruptive behavior (including noisy and unruly children) may be removed from the event. Heckling, booing, protests and demonstrations are not permitted.
- Everyone must have a ticket. Children should be seated with a responsible adult.
- Unauthorized alterations to caps and gowns are not permitted, and graduates cannot add items to the prescribed academic costume. Graduates should wear appropriate attire and footwear.
- Smoking, including e-cigarettes, is prohibited.

We expect everyone to conduct themselves in a dignified manner and comply with these guidelines.

Yeshiva University