CORE COURSES

EDU 5000 LEARNING AND COGNITION 3 credits

---

This course will examine student thinking and learning through the perspectives of cognitive and learning science. It will include an introduction to cognitive science focusing on representations used to model student knowledge and thinking, and how these can be used to describe student learning over the short- and long-term. Finally, the course will focus on how these representations of knowledge and learning can enhance teaching practice in classroom settings.

EDU 5010 EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY AND JEWISH LEARNING 3 credits

Note: This is a pre-requisite course required of all students who have not taken any psychology courses before joining Azrieli. Credits in this course do not count towards the 36-credit Azrieli course requirements.

Basic concepts in educational psychology are presented with particular attention to theory, research and practical applications for the educator. A wide range of topics related to the application of psychology to the classroom include a review of the psychology of motivation, instilling values, and the role of educators in promoting a healthy self-concept. A basic overview of the major theories of child development is provided in the context of recent research findings, Judaic perspectives, and implications for educators working in Jewish schools. Besides for weekly readings, discussions, and assignments, students are expected to do other larger assignments such as interviews, a paper, and a final.

EDU 5070 PROMOTING JEWISH VALUES 3 credits

A practical approach will be taken to the field of moral development, values education and the psychology of religion informed both by psychological theory and Jewish thought. The major focus of the course will be on practical educational applications of the fields of positive psychology and social emotional learning. Specific topics in values education and religious education will be presented in the context of recent research findings, Judaic perspectives, and implications for educators working in Jewish schools. Besides weekly readings, discussion boards, and reflections, students are expected to prepare a module on a value of their choice to present to peers, and design lesson plans on that topic for their students.

EDU 5120 MODELS OF TEACHING I 3 credits

This course integrates three major components of effective classroom pedagogy: instructional strategies, behavior management strategies and instructional design strategies. Students will leave the course with a deep understanding of lesson planning, active and cooperative learning strategies, research-based questioning techniques, and best practices for effective classroom management, as demonstrated in a final model lesson.

EDU 5121 MODELS OF TEACHING II 3 credits

Models II is a framework of thinking about and learning with all students by matching learner to learning through proactive planning, multiple approaches to content, process, product, and environment, and a blend of whole-class, group and independent learning. This course will focus on the knowledge, understanding, and skill related to differentiated instruction, including planning for, assessing and managing classrooms with diverse students.

Prerequisite: EDU 5120 Models of Teaching

EDU 5140 CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT 3 credits

This course will familiarize the student with the theoretical foundations of curriculum design and student assessment, along with the practical skills necessary to develop a coherent curriculum and varied assessments. It will focus on identifying learner-centered curricular goals for a Jewish educational domain, designing experiences that will successfully implement these goals, and devising a range of assessments to determine the extent to which the desired learning is taking place.

Prerequisite: EDU 5120 Models of Teaching

EDU 5141 PROBLEM BASED LEARNING 3 credits

Principles, techniques, and materials of teaching Judaic studies subjects using problem- and project-based learning. Students will learn the theoretical foundations of PBL, as well as the hands-on skills necessary to implement a PBL curriculum in Jewish day schools.

ELECTIVE COURSES

Pre-requisite for ALL elective courses: EDU 5120: Models of Teaching

EDU 5200 TEACHING BIBLE: CHUMASH 3 credits

Principles, techniques, and materials of teaching Bible in Jewish day schools; trends and approaches in teaching Bible; relevance of the Bible in modern society. Analysis of student motivation, learning styles and development, and the selection of appropriate texts and commentaries.

EDU 5210 TEACHING BIBLE: THE PROPHETS 3 credits

Maximizing the use of Nevi'im Rishonim (in elementary school) and Nevi'im Aharonim (in secondary school) as educational resources through the analysis of student motivation, learning styles and development, and the selection of appropriate texts and commentaries. Various instructional and assessment modalities are analyzed.

EDU 5212 TEACHING JEWISH STUDIES: PIRKEI AVOT 3 credits

This course has two main goals, each overlapping with the other;

1. We will learn how to teach Pirkei Avot and mefarshim to students, including important methodologies.
2. It will also double as a course in how to teach social and emotional learning (SEL) and positive psychology to students. This will be accomplished by using Pirkei Avot as a springboard to enhance this type of learning for a Jewish day school.

After an introduction to core ideas in SEL and positive psychology and an overview of Pirkei Avot, we will learn methodology to give us language as to how to teach Pirkei Avot to enhance critical thinking and analysis. We will also collect ideas cutting across Mishnayot and the commentators as they relate to different psychological principles, such as grit, self-control, productivity, character, social intelligence, emotional intelligence, and educational psychology. We will research the new findings in each domain as to best practices in inculcating these values in a classroom, and how we can harness the teaching of Pirkei Avot towards this goal. Besides for weekly readings, discussions, and smaller assignments, students will create lesson plans that integrate the Pirkei Avot methodology and psychology, as well as a three-part lesson plan on the topic of student's choice.

EDU 5213 TEACHING MACKSHAVA 3 credits

Description coming soon.

EDU 5214 TEACHING TALMUD 3 credits

EDU 5215 TEACHING MIDRASH 3 credits

---

The objective of this course is to acquire a knowledge of midrashic literature and its uses in Jewish education. Knowledge includes distinguishing between different midrashic genres (halakhic and aggadic) and between Midrash and talmudic Aggadeta. Attention will also be paid to the historical provenance of significant midrashic collections, such as Midrash Rabbah, Lekah Tov and Midrash HaGadol. Uses in Jewish education include the incorporation of midrashic sources in biblical commentaries and the use of midrashim, in general, for the development of student character and values education.

EDU 5220 TEACHING JEWISH HISTORY 3 credits

The means, methods, goals and objectives of teaching Jewish History in formal and informal Jewish educational settings.

EDU 5225 SPIRITUALITY AND TEXTS 3 credits

---

Advancing spiritual objectives through the study and teaching of Jewish texts. The course will cover defining and assessing spirituality, close reading and interpretation of Jewish texts, deriving spiritual values from Jewish texts, and teaching students to derive spiritual values from Jewish texts.

EDU 5230 TEACHING TEFILAH 3 credits

Principles, techniques, and materials for teaching tefilah in Jewish day schools; resource materials, terminology, concepts, curriculum, and philosophy of Jewish prayer.

EDU 5240 TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST 3 credits

---

This course will provide principles, practices, materials, interdisciplinary activities, and resources, with particular emphasis on literature and film, for teaching about the Holocaust in elementary and secondary schools.

EDU 5250 WORKSHOP IN INFORMAL JEWISH EDUCATION 3 credits

---

This course will examine the underlying theories and methodologies, as well as practical application, of informal Jewish educational principles and techniques, including psycho-educational perspectives underlying informal education, and student-centered active learning processes. Effective communication, drama, film and other multi-media procedures and programming materials will be considered, along with leadership training and halachik dimensions of outreach work.

EDU 5260 TEACHING JEWISH STUDIES: TORAH SHE BA'AL PEH 3 credits

This course focuses on the teaching of Torah She Ba'al Peh on the secondary level. It will include: an historical overview of the role and nature of Torah She Ba'al Peh studies; the place it has within the curriculum; an examination of the structure of the Midrash, Halakha, Mishna and Talmud; strategies for the teaching of texts and sugyot; contemporary Yeshiva approaches to Torah She Ba'al Peh studies; use of technology; chevruta learning; engaging the student; creative thinking and analysis; motivational techniques; logical thinking; teaching the challenged and areas often neglected.

EDU 5302 TEACHING LITERACY 3 credits

Prerequisite: EDU 5120 Models of Teaching

This course examines the nature of reading and writing. Consideration is given to the acquisition and role of language (first and second) and to the emerging intellectual and emotional needs of children, particularly within a Jewish community. We will study the facts and misconceptions concerning language learning, literacy developments it relates to bilingualism, various approaches to reading and writing instruction, assessment of reading and writing, and interventions for "at-risk" readers. The role of the teacher, the physical and emotional environment of the classroom and the nature of the curriculum will be explored. Students will examine and evaluate materials and methods of teaching. The course will include study and discussion of relevant theory and research as well as practical application of concepts. Each student will work individually with a child, observing, trying out methods and materials, and developing firsthand awareness of the reading and writing process, especially the role of the teacher and child in that process.

EDU 5317 TEACHING ISRAEL AND ZIONISM 3 credits

Curricular and instructional development in religious Zionism and modern Israel, including multi- and interdisciplinary approaches; studying current events and promoting Israel advocacy; integration of Israel education into Jewish and general studies curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular options.

EDU 5325 ART AND PRACTICE OF ADULT JEWISH EDUCATION 3 credits

Participants will study classical theories of adult learning and apply them to instruction. Central theorists, notions of transformation and their application to the Jewish classroom will be considered. Will study techniques for enhancing adults' learning - the management of difficult students and other challenges. Developmentally appropriate topic choices, approaches and evaluation of adult learning will be included. Will include some study and teaching of Jewish texts.

EDU 5551 PROFESSIONAL ENHANCEMENT PRACTICUM (PEP I) 3 credits

The PEP (student teaching) experience serves as the culminating expression of what students have learned in their coursework and in actual teaching, integrating theory, research, and practice. PEP is a 6-credit practicum that extends over the course of the full academic year. PEP I includes a seminar course that meets approximately 15 times over the course of entire academic year (usually bi-weekly) to reflect on teaching and learning and discuss practical teaching challenges and applications, in a collaborative environment. Students should reserve this time and not take on a work assignment that will prevent attendance in this seminar. The course requires that students serve as head teacher, assistant teacher, or intern (non-paid placement by Azrieli) in a formal Jewish educational setting. Students are observed and mentored in their classroom setting at least 4 times over the course of the school year.

EDU 5552 PROFESSIONAL ENHANCEMENT PRACTICUM (PEP II) 3 credits

Students register for PEP II in the Spring. PEP II is a continuation of PEP I.

EDU 5700 PORTFOLIO 0 credits

---

Taken in the last semester before graduation, the student is required to submit a Professional Portfolio demonstrating knowledge, skills, and dispositions of a Jewish educator.

EDU 5816 SEMINAR IN CONTEMPORARY JEWISH EDUCATION 3 credits

This course will provide an overview of many of the big ideas in education and Jewish education.

What does it take to be a great Jewish educator? In this course we explore some of the big ideas in Jewish education, including motivation for teaching, traits of an effective teacher, teacher-student relationships, teaching the whole child, teaching every child, professionalism, and self-care. We will study traditional Jewish texts and modern scholarship, and both will double as springboards for self-reflective practice. Weekly assignments will combine readings, journaling, discussion boards, and/or guided notes. More substantive assignments will incorporate biography presentations and meta-reflections. Taking two NY State online Workshops will be incorporated in this class, to meet the state and MS graduation requirement.

EDU 9000 Section AZ Independent Study

By special arrangement with a faculty member only.
