

Assistant Program Director – f/t

SPOP is a nationally recognized leader in geriatric mental health. SPOP was the first agency in the nation to focus exclusively on the comprehensive mental health needs of older adults and has received numerous national, state and local awards recognizing our excellence and provision of innovative programming. We are now seeking an assistant program director with LCSW to join us and help us achieve the agency's mission of enhancing the quality of life of older adults, fostering their independent living through the delivery of comprehensive mental health and supportive services, advocacy, and education.

The assistant program director will help provide clinical and administrative oversight of SPOP's satellite site programming, supervise clinical staff, and work closely with referral partners as well as NYC Department for the Aging (DFTA) staff.

The starting salary for this position is $70,000-$72,000, and SPOP offers a comprehensive benefits package along with expert supervision and a supportive clinical environment.

Requirements: Qualified applicants must have current clinical social work licensure (LCSW) and three to five years of supervisory experience in a behavioral health care or NYC-based aging services setting. Candidates should demonstrate expertise in using an electronic health record and excellent collaborative skills across disciplines.

SPOP is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer committed to assembling a diverse, broadly trained staff. LGBTQ+ people, people of color, people living with HIV/AIDS, veterans, and people with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply.
