

Assisted Living facility in Queens looking for a responsible and self-motivated individual to join our first-rate Case Management team. We are looking for a Case Manager to assess the needs of residents, coordinate and monitor treatment plans and facilitate interdisciplinary care. Our organizational objective is to enhance the quality of resident management, maximize resident and family satisfaction and promote a healthy and satisfying lifestyle for our elderly population. Individual must be patient, organized, have excellent communication and people skills, be able to multi-task and problem solve. F/T position, flexibility with days. Education requirements: Bachelors or Associates degree with a minimum of one year experience in human services. Please email resume to : Lisa@BoulevardALP.com