VISITOR'S GUIDE

WELCOME!

The Belz Gallery is a Judaica museum dedicated to the celebration of modern Jewish art and culture.

It is divided into eight thematic sections and features a diverse range of paintings, sculptures, and ritual objects.

Each section is introduced with a large text panel. Individual objects are identified with labels featuring information about their makers, title, year or region of creation (when known), and medium.

GALLERY POLICIES

To preserve the artwork and create a conducive viewing environment in the Belz Gallery, we kindly ask that you please:

Do not eat or drink.

Do not touch the artwork.

Do not make phone calls.

THE COLLECTION

All the artwork on display in the Belz Gallery was generously donated by Jack and Marilyn (z"l) Belz of Memphis, Tennessee.

Jack and Marilyn Belz were avid art collectors, who shared a passion for the beauty of Jewish visual expression.
