

Certificate in Creative Arts and Healing Declaration Form

The certificate is granted to any Wurzweiler student who is in good academic standing and who meets the following:

1. Completion of Generalist Practice I & II, Human Behavior, Social Welfare Organization, and both Research courses.
2. Completion of 3 specialized elective courses (see below).
3. Completion of one field placement integrating creative methods into work with client population
4. Awareness of the theoretical framework and evidence based practices connected to creative art approaches
5. Incorporation of creative arts into social work practice

Certificate in Creative Arts and Healing students are required to take a total of 3 specialized electives:

Course Number	Course Name	Completion Date
SWK 6670	Creative Arts in Social Work*
SWK 6114	Introduction to Psychodrama, Sociometry & Group Psychotherapy*

*Required

Plus one additional MSW Course that is focused on a specific client population such as:

Course Number	Course Name	Completion Date
SWK6810	Social Work Practice in the Military
SWK 6685	Social Work Practice with Trauma & Interpersonal Violence
SWK 6691	Social Work Practice with Addictions
SWK 6823	Treatment of Eating Disorders

Complete this form to declare your intention to pursue a Certificate in Creative Arts & Healing and acknowledge that you have received and understand the requirements needed for completion of the Certificate.

Student Name (please print): _____

Student ID: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please submit completed form to your advisor & bring a copy to Jeff Coyle's office – BH 910