MEN'S CAMPUS FAQ

1) What is the ID Card?

Your ID Card has many purposes on campus; it serves as your identification card which you will use to gain access to university buildings, your Dining Club card (caf card), your library card and your ID to get onto the shuttles. You must show your ID card, with a current semester sticker (which identifies you as being currently enrolled in the University and is handed out at the start of every semester by security in the college buildings), as you enter every YU building. On the back of your ID are numbers for Security Stations.

Wilf Campus: (212) 960- 5200 Beren Campus (212) 340-7460

2) Where are the Food Service facilities on campus?

The Furman Dining Hall (aka “the Caf”) is located in the lower level of Rubin Hall. Additionally, there is a Caf store located in the lower level of Rubin Hall, and there is a Caf kiosk in Nagel Commons, known as “Nagel Bagel.” Additionally, the Sky Caf located on the 12th floor of Belfer Hall. You can also use your Caf card at limited local stores and eateries. For hours of operation, information and updates about food services go to yu.edu/dining/

3) How do I purchase food in the caf?

Your ID cards also serve as your "caf card." In the cafs and the caf stores (stores on campus where food and other items can be purchased), your ID card serves as a declining balance food card. At the start of each semester, money is added to your Dining Club Account which you may then use to purchase food and other items in the cafs or caf stores. Your caf card will work on both the Wilf and Beren Campuses. You are the only one permitted to use your caf card.

4) How do I know how much money is left on my card?

Each time you make a purchase, the Register's customers screen shows how much is left on your card.

5) Where is the Beit Midrash located?

There are several Batei Midrash on the Wilf Campus. The two biggest ones are the Glueck Beit Midrash, located on the first and second floors of the Glueck building, and the Harry Ficshel Beit Midrash, located on the first floor of Zysman Hall. Additionally, there are Batei Midrash on the third floor of Furst Hall, first floor of Morgenstern, basement of Morgenstern, the first floor of Muss Hall and the first floor of Rubin Hall.
