Required Courses	Credits
HIST 1101 The Emergence of Europe	3 Credits
HIST 1102 The Transformations of Europe	3 Credits
HIST 3001 or 3002 Capstone Course	3 Credits

Plus 24 additional HIST credits, of which six credits must be in U.S. and three in non-Western history. Courses that cover both the U.S. and the non-Western world may be counted either as U.S. or as non-Western history, but not as both. 24 Credits

With the permission of the departmental advisor, up to 6 credits in Jewish history (in excess of those used to meet Jewish studies distribution and Jewish Studies requirements) may count toward the major.

It is strongly recommended that students take HIST 1101 and 1102 in the first, but no later than the second year of study.

Students should meet with a department faculty member to discuss their plan to complete the History major/minor.

A maximum of 6 AP History credits with a score of 4 or 5 may apply toward the History major.

The Department encourages its students to master at least one language in addition to English and Hebrew. Knowledge of the relevant language is virtually essential for senior thesis research on many topics in the history of Europe or the non-western world. It is also essential for M.A. and PhD programs in History.
