

Great Professional Opportunity:

A growing popular private practice located in Brooklyn, recruiting for a clinical psychologist, LMSW or MHC clinician, to join their Female Division Counseling Center, to work with the Pre-adolescent, Teens, and Young Adults (10 yo- 21 yo). As an associate team member, you will utilize evidence based therapy to help empower young adults with coping skills, resilience, and confidence, to be a force for positive change in their lives.

Successful candidates will receive free access to centrally located office in Flatbush, provided with referrals to increase your caseload, weekly collaborative team peer supervision, team trainings, and the opportunity to take the next step in their career and professional growth. No career commitments needed and paid per session.

Any interest or inquiries please feel free to DM- Dr. Benjie Stern (917) 864-6274