Company Description:

This is a full-time, salaried staff position. This is not a fee-for-service job. Therapist owned, private group practice seeks full time LCSW to join our Manhattan team. We maintain a mid-sized practice to create community and provide individual attention to both our team and clients. Clients are high functioning and low risk.

About the Opportunity:

Our ideal candidate enjoys supervising and mentoring LMSW therapists, while providing direct psychotherapy to their own small caseload. Perfect for a seasoned LCSW seeking a full time salaried position without the demands and isolation of a solo private practice. (This is not a position for clinicians who wish to see private clients outside of our practice.) We're looking for a long term team mate who will thrive in our collaborative environment.

The Position & Responsibilities:

This is a hybrid position with variety and opportunities to be creative. The major role is clinical with other activities that support our team efforts in psychoeducation & outreach, social media, and marketing.

Clinical Responsibilities:

Position will supervise and support LMSW therapists; lead group supervision, assist in hiring, training, and on-boarding new therapists, monitor retention, progress notes, and other related clinical and supervisor duties, as needed. In addition, candidate will maintain their own small case load with 15-17 clients per week.

Support Responsibilities:

Our full time admin staff handle all scheduling & billing responsibilities. This position reports directly to our Operations Manager who coordinates our team efforts. Assignments include website and social media updates.

Requirements:

3 years LCSW Therapist & Supervision Experience
A Team player who can work Independently
A Passion for Leadership & Mentoring
Social Media/Computer Savvy
Excellent Communicator with strong conflict resolution skills

Benefits:

Health Insurance
Remote Position
Minimal Paperwork
Paid Time Off & Holidays
CEU Program
Professional Development
