

Note-taking Self Evaluation

Directions: Respond YES or NO to the following statements.

YES	NO
		I usually take notes in class.
		I have a note-taking method that works for me.
		I can identify important ideas and details from a lecture and don't feel the need to write down every word.
		During a lecture, I listen for cues such as transition words, repetition of information and changes in voice inflections.
		I can extract important concepts and details from a text.
		When reviewing my notes, I add questions in the margins.
		I leave blank spaces in my notes so that I can later fill in important details that I missed.
		My notes are helpful when reviewing for an exam or quiz.
		I review my notes frequently.
		I can listen to a lecture and take notes at the same time.

If you responded NO to 3 or more statements, consider working with a learning specialist at the Office of Academic Support.
