

FALL ORIENTATION

“A Unique Education”

Tuesday, August 25 – Sunday August 30, 2026

Tuesday 8/25

Move-in & Welcome

Arrive, settle into your room, and get excited for the year ahead. That evening, bring the family and friends who moved you in to cheer on the Mets together.

Wednesday 8/26

Everything You Need to Succeed

Wi-Fi, OneCard, academic advising, campus safety, and more: we'll set you up to thrive academically, socially, and personally. Then head out to explore New York City with new friends.

Thursday 8/27

The Heart of a YU Education

Steep yourself in the Torah learning and spiritual growth that is core to your YU education and discuss what this means for your journey and the person you're becoming.

Friday 8/28

Prepare for Shabbat

Spend some free time getting to know your classmates better, on- or off-campus, as you get ready for Shabbat, the spiritual center of every week at YU.

Shabbat 8/29

Community and Connection

Share Shabbat with friends and our Torah leaders on campus, the experience that anchors you and our entire community.

Sunday 8/30

Get Involved

Join a trip and then our signature BBQ, meeting returning students and discovering the many ways to get involved on campus, with Israel at the center of your time and efforts.
