How To Earn the 128 Credits Needed for Graduation from YC

• Complete your:

• CORE + Jewish Studies: (35-40 Cred.)
• MAJOR: (30-45 Cred.)
• Israel: (32 Cred.)
• Take Shiur for Credit: these are credits earned from your morning program. Shiur credits can be put towards your 128 credits required to graduate as well as the 84 residential credits. These credits will be put towards your secular GPA.
• We advise most pre-health students to use Shiur (if you are MYP or BMP) only when you will need a light semester!
  ❖ They appear on your afternoon transcript as “HES”

• Elective classes

• Minor/s

OTHER PATHS

https://www.yu.edu/academic-advising/undergraduate-men/prehealth/allied-health-careers

What will YU generally do to assist students who don't want to go to medical or dental school?

• Students have access to our office regardless of what they choose to do. We still help them with the application process, collecting letters of rec, editing personal statements and evaluating their next steps.

What is the path generally for someone who dedicated 4 years of sciences geared towards med. school, but cannot get into or does not want to go to medical or dental school?

Students also attend:
• Podiatry school (DPM)
• Physician Assistant (PA)
• Nursing (accelerated MSN)
• Physical Therapy (DPT)
• MS/PhD Science Programs
• Law School
• Business School
• Clinical research
• Public Health
Pre-Law

Unlike pre-health students, where specific courses are required, pre-law students can major in any area: Humanities such as English or Jewish Studies; Social Sciences—Psych, Econ, Sociology; Sciences—Biology or Math; or be a SYMS major in Finance or Marketing.

Grades are important – 3.5 or better overall

A robust resume is important but does not need to include any specific law-related activities.

Leadership skills and skills in critical reading and writing are important. Model UN, Debate Club, Judicial Internship are just some of the programs you should seek out.
