

RABBI ISAAC ELCHANAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
GUIDELINES FOR REGISTRATION - SPRING 2018/5778

For all students

○ When and where to register:

- The RIETS office is located in the Glueck Center, 629-630.
- Financial Aid forms for incoming students are available now and are to be returned to the RIETS office no later than Tuesday, December 26th. Those who completed Financial Aid forms in the Fall need not do so again.
- FOR ALL CURRENT STUDENTS: Registration is scheduled for Tuesday-Thursday, January 2-4 and Monday and Tuesday, January 8-9 from 11:00 am-1:00 pm and 3:00-6:00 pm. There will be a sign-up sheet in G629 beginning Monday, December 25th for appointments with Rabbi Bronstein at 10 minute intervals during this time. Every student must make an appointment and meet with Rabbi Bronstein to have their Registration and Outside Work forms approved.

○ How to Register:

- Carefully fill out the information requested on the Program Registration form and on the Outside Work form. Be sure to register for each shiur, kollel, or course you are taking on your Program Registration form.
- At your pre-arranged time, bring both forms to Rabbi Bronstein at the RIETS office (Glueck Center, Room 630) for approval.
- Completed registration forms together with the registration fee (checks and/or credit card forms) should be submitted to Sharon Bar-David (G629). The RIETS office will then forward these to the Offices of the Registrar and Student Finance.

○ Late Registration Fees:

- It is critical for proper planning of shiurim and professional classes that talmidim register in a timely manner. Any returning student not registered by Thursday, January 4th is subject to a late fee of $50.
- Students not registered by the first day of classes, Monday, January 22nd, are subject to a late fee of $100.
- Students not registered by Thursday, February 8th, are subject to a late fee of $300.
- For Students receiving stipends: In order for the stipends to be processed efficiently it is imperative that all students receiving stipends be registered in a timely fashion. Please note that students who have not registered by Monday, January 8th will not be able to receive a January stipend payment.

○ Miscellaneous:

- Shiurim in Sephardic halakha are available for all students and are mandatory for Maybaum Fellows. Please speak with Rabbi Bronstein for more information.
- Each student must pass a Comprehensive Examination demonstrating his proficiency in the Hebrew language. A student who has passed an approved Ulpan is excused from this requirement. The Comprehensive Examination will be administered on Sunday, March 11th and the fee is $25. The deadline for registering for this examination is Thursday, March 8th.

○ Changes during the semester:

- If you wish to change Shiurim or classes during the semester, complete a Shiur Change form and bring it to Rabbi Bronstein for approval. RIETS students who are still undergraduates in MYP, should also see Rabbi Yosef Kalinsky (G631).

- Questions regarding registration, shiurim, and program of study should be referred to the RIETS office in Glueck 630. Telephone: 646-592-4066.

Review of Requirements for the Completion of Semikha:

- Hebrew Examination – see above

First Year Students

- For those starting Semikha this Spring, Welcome to RIETS! It is our pleasure to have you as part of the Yeshiva!
- Most students register for Talmud Shiurim in years one and two. Please discuss your shiur Selection with Rabbi Bronstein. Limmudim include:
  1. Sukkah - Perek Alef (with most of the Roshei Yeshiva)
  2. Masechet Berakhot with Rav Schachter
  3. Masechet Shavuot with Rav Rosensweig
- For those who would like to focus more on halakha in their years of semikha, the following full-morning limmudim might be considered:
  1. Sukkah shiur - with Rav Willig (as regular morning limmud) with a focus on Hilkhhot Sukkah.
  2. Shabbat - with Rav Werblowsky (covering gemara and halakha)
  3. Niddah with Rav Tendler and Rav Schwartz covering both the sugyot and halakha.

- It is recommended that you take “Contemporary Jewish Law” with Rabbi Uri Orlian (HAL 6148) on Tuesdays in your first year of Semikha unless you have a scheduling conflict. Please note that in 2018-2019 we plan to offer the class on Thursdays and, in subsequent years, to alternate every year between Tuesdays and Thursdays.
- See the attached pages on “Professional Classes” at the end of this packet before registering for Friday classes. If you are starting Semikha, please be in touch with Rabbi Rothwachs at lrothwachs@yu.edu.
- If you will be working towards your co-requisite requirement this year, please see the instructions listed under “Second Year Students”.

Second Year Students

- Most students register for Talmud Shiurim in years one and two. Please discuss your shiur Selection with Rabbi Bronstein. Limmudim include:
  1. Sukkah - Perek Alef (with most of the Roshei Yeshiva)
  2. Masechet Berakhot with Rav Schachter
  3. Masechet Shavuot with Rav Rosensweig
- For those who would like to focus more on halakha in their years of semikha, the following full-morning limmudim might be considered:
  1. Sukkah shiur - with Rav Willig (as regular morning limmud) with a focus on Hilkhos Sukkah and Daled Minim.
  2. Shabbat - with Rav Werblowsky (covering gemara and halakha)
  3. Niddah with Rav Tendler and Rav Schwartz covering both the sugyot and halakha
- You may, however, choose to learn Yoreh Deah (Issur v’Heter) this year and complete your Talmud Shiur requirement next year. See below (under “Third Year Students”) regarding Yoreh Deah. Yoreh Deah should be taken for a full year, Fall and Spring, in sequence.
- Sephardic students may study Hilkhos Aveilut with Rav Sarfaty in addition to attending a full-time Shiur.
- See the attached pages on “Professional Classes” at the end of this packet before registering for Friday Classes. If you are starting semikha, please be in touch with Rabbi Larry Rothwachs (lrothwachs@yu.edu).
- You should be beginning your co-requisite this year. To complete Semikha, students must either:
  1. Attend six semesters of the Katz Kollel (TAC 7004). To join the Kollel, please fill out a separate application and schedule a bechina with Rav Schachter. The Kollel offers options as follow:
    - a. Main track of the Kollel (40 blatt Gemara Nedarim).
      - i. There is an advanced section within this track called the Kuppermann Fellowship.
Students admitted to this fellowship have additional responsibilities and are given higher stipends.
      - ii. Note: All Wexner Semikha Honors students must participate in the first or second (Halakha) section of the kollel unless given special permission by the Dean. Honors students in the second section of the kollel receive a slightly reduced stipend.

- b. Halakha track - for those learning Hilkhoh Niddah in depth with Rabbi Michael Zylberman.
    - c. Section C - individual limmudim (in Gemara and Halakha - as approved and arranged with the Seganei Rosh Kollel (Rabbis Hirsch and Sarfaty).
  - 2. Complete twelve classes in Machshevet Yisrael (listed as JTH in the schedule of courses).
  - 3. Complete a Master's Degree from the Azrieli Graduate School of Jewish Education & Administration, the Bernard Revel Graduate School of Jewish Studies, or the Wurzweiler School of Social Work. For more information about any of the above graduate schools, please see the appropriate links at www.yu.edu; or
  - 4. Complete the certificate program in Mental Health Counseling through the joint RIETS/Ferkauf Graduate Program.
- Second year students must register for a professional track and take classes within their track. See the attached pages at the end of this on "Professional Classes" before registering for Friday classes. There are three professional tracks: Pulpit, Education, and Lay Leadership. Those choosing the Lay leadership track must have prior approval.

Third Year Students

- It is recommended that you study Yoreh Deah (Issur V'Heter) this year. Yoreh Deah can be studied during the 5778 year in a number of different ways. Yoreh Deah should begin in the Fall and continue in the Spring for a full year of study.
  - 1. Daily Hullin/Yoreh Deah shiur with Rav Neuburger.
  - 2. Hullin/Yoreh Deah Chaburot with Rabbis Genack and Glickman. The Chaburot will be given Sunday morning and one afternoon a week.
  - 3. Twice weekly Chaburot with Rav Simon Monday and Wednesday mornings.
  - 4. Sephardic Yoreh Deah with Rav Ben-Haim.

Students must consult with Rabbi Bronstein about the best venue for them to successfully complete the Yoreh Deah requirement.

Please note that although certain options for Yoreh Deah meet only once or twice a week students are still required to be in attendance during regular seder / shiur hours.
- All third year students must fulfill their Third Year Internship requirement. Third Year Shimush is a 20-30 hour (total) commitment to prepare you for the rabbinic/educational activities you plan to engage in. A list of suggestions for fulfilling this requirement can be obtained in the RIETS office. Please register for RTP 6201, even if you have already completed your shimush but have not yet received credit. Placements must be approved by Rabbi Larry Rothwachs (lrothwachs@yu.edu). Students need register for only one semester of third year internship.

Fourth Year Students

- Please note that you must learn in Yeshiva at least one seder per day to receive credit for your fourth year of Semikha.
- You must register for the "Fourth Year Halakha Lema'aseh Program" (HAL 8002) unless you have already completed this requirement. Chaburot take place on Thursdays from 1:30 – 2:30 PM, in the Glueck Center and are supplemented by guided textual study. Six units are covered (Eruvin, Ishut, Amira L'Akum U'Pikuach Nefesh, Geirut, Mikvaot and K'lalei Hora'ah) and bechinot are

- given on each section. In addition, Bishul B'Shabbat, a seventh unit, is learned separately. It is offered in June as a morning Limmud. This program is coordinated by Rabbi Daniel Stein, (rdnstein@yu.edu).
- You should already have arranged for an appropriate internship for this year. If you have not yet done so, please contact Rabbi Gideon Shloush at (gshloush@yu.edu) immediately. You should register for "Fourth Year Professional Seminars / Internship" (RTP 6201).
  - In order for the RIETS to begin paying you for your internship position you will need to fill out a W-9 form and Direct Deposit Form along with a voided check. These forms are available from Sharon Bar-David, Administrative Coordinator for RIETS (Glueck 629) and should be returned as soon as possible.
  - Students in the Pulpit track must take Advanced Pastoral Counseling, the Derasha (Senior Homiletics) Workshop and Practical Rabbinics. If you have a scheduling conflict, please contact Rabbi Larry Rothwachs at (lrothwachs@yu.edu).
  - If you hope to be working in Avodat Hakodesh next year, it is crucial that you begin the placement process during your fourth year. Please see Rabbi Ronald Schwarzberg, Director Career Development and Placement for the Center for the Jewish Future (Furst Hall room 419, 212-960-5212). You can make an appointment with Keren Simon at 212-960-5292 or ksimon@yu.edu.

Semikha Honors Program

Students in the Semikha Honors program register for shiurim in the same manner as non-honors students.

- Professional coursework:
  - First year semikha: Take the same courses as all semikha students.
  - Second year semikha: Take Pastoral Psychology Foundations II - Blumenthal or Pelcovitz (RTP 6112H) at 9:15 AM and Public Speaking II – (RTP 6142H) at 11:00 AM and Rabbinic Writing II as an on-line tutorial with Professor Newman.
