

Yeshiva University Middle States Self-Study Timeline

September—December 2022

- Assemble Steering Committee and Working Groups
- Submit Self-Study Design

November 8, 2022

- MSCHE VP Liaison Self-Study Prep Visit to YU

November—December 2022

- Revisions and acceptance of Self-Study Design

February—May 2023

- Working Groups convene
- Community Website Live
- Accepted Self-Study Design sent to Team Chair

May—September 2023

- Self-Study Evaluation Team Chair announced
- Working Groups complete drafts

September—November 2023

- Self-Study Report drafted and shared with YU community
- Self-Study revisions and campus review
- Self-Study Report draft sent to Team Chair (two weeks before preliminary visit)

December 2023—January 2024

- Team Chair, Father Joseph McShane (President Emeritus, Fordham University) visits on Thursday, December 7th
- Self-Study Report finalized based on Team Chair Feedback and shared with campus

February—March 2024

- Final Self-Study Report/Verification of Compliance/Evidence Inventory uploaded to MSCHE portal (six weeks before Team visit)

March—May 2024

- Self-Study Evaluation Team visit to YU begins April 7th, 2024 through April 9th, 2024.
- Team Report
- Institutional Response

June/November 2024

- Middle States Commission meets to determine action
- Team visits after April 15th are acted on at the Commission's November meeting