Yeshiva University
Office of the Dean of Students

Welcome

Dear Students,

On behalf of the entire administration, faculty, and staff, it is our pleasure to welcome you to Yeshiva University's undergraduate programs at the Sy Syms School of Business, Stern College for Women, Yeshiva College, and the Associates Program. Your decision to attend YU attests to your commitment to academic excellence and Torah values.

As you embark on this exciting chapter of your lives, know that your success is our utmost priority. We are fully committed to providing you with the support and resources needed to thrive inside and outside the classroom.

We understand that transitioning to university life can be overwhelming at times, but please know you are not alone. To assist you with the transition, we have provided you with this handbook which lays out many of the resources that are available to you throughout your YU journey. You are encouraged to utilize them as they are designed to enhance and support your experience at YU.

If you have any questions or need any other assistance, feel free to reach out to any of the departments listed on the last page of this handbook or email me directly at sara.asher@yu.edu.

Wishing you success in all your academic, religious, and social pursuits.

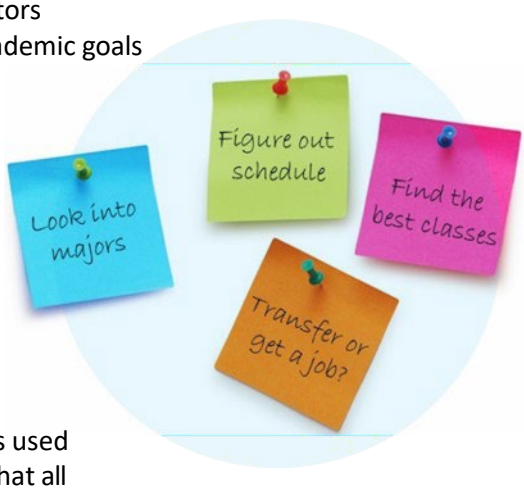

Sincerely,
Dr. Sara Asher
Dean of Students

Academic Advising and Student Success

Academic Advising and Student Success provides guidance and information to students as they adjust to university life and progress towards the completion of their degrees. Advisers assist students as they transition to college, identify personal interests and goals, and work with students on a plan to satisfy requirements towards their major.

Visit Academic Advising for:

- Help with the transition to a university academic environment
- Clarification about courses, requirements, policies, and procedures
- Individual advisement meetings to plan your schedule, academic path, and programs
- Assistance in determining your choice of major and minor
- Support in planning for graduate school with pre-professional advisers
- Free tutoring in a wide array of subjects by trained peer tutors
- Help in identifying university resources to support your academic goals
- Junior checks, senior checks, and graduation checks

OFFICE HOURS
Monday – Thursday: 9 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.
Friday: 9 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Peer tutoring is available for many classes and subjects.
Click here to schedule a session.

The Yeshiva Success Network (YSN) is an online platform that is used collaboratively by faculty and student support staff to ensure that all students are set up for academic success via a proactive process that connects students to support services across YU. Students can get more information and learn how to set up their profile here.

BOOK AN ADVISING APPOINTMENT
1. Login to YSN using your YU credentials.
2. Select a specific advisor or select "academic advising center."

Athletics

The department of athletics at Yeshiva University is committed to distinction in athletics as part of a larger commitment to excellence in academics. Intercollegiate athletics promotes key character traits of personal development, including learning to work with others in pursuit of a common goal, and the adherence to codes of fairness and respect.

Student-athletes at Yeshiva are held to the highest expectations and standards both on and off the playing fields. We are committed to the guiding principles of Judaism and integrating religious observance with academic accomplishment. Our goal is to coach and mentor our student-athletes to help prepare them for the future. One of the key goals if for the YU athletics program to serve as a source of pride to the Jewish community. Every student-athlete should leave YU with the strength, courage and leadership skills to meet life's challenges.

Counseling Center

College can be an exciting and meaningful time, but it can also come with challenges. Whether you're feeling overwhelmed, anxious, unsure of yourself, or just want someone to talk to, the Counseling Center is here for you. We are staffed by psychologists and social workers, as well as a Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner. We offer free, confidential mental health services to help you navigate whatever comes your way during your time at school. You don't need to have everything figured out. Just come as you are, and we'll work with you to help you reach your goals, gain insight, increase coping skills, and improve your mental health. Some students come in for just one or two conversations and others work with us more regularly. However you use our services, we're committed to supporting your well-being in a way that works for you.

Our Services Include:

- Short-term individual counseling (up to 16 weekly sessions)
- Support in times of crisis
- Psychiatric evals and medication support
- Referrals to trusted providers when longer-term care is needed
- Workshops and wellness programs that build emotional resilience

We Help With:

- Stress related to school or academics
- Family and relationship concerns
- Grief or loss
- Adjusting to college life
- Anxiety, panic, and depression
- Identity exploration
- Trauma or past experiences
- ADHD and related challenges

Everything you share with us is kept completely confidential, in accordance with the law.
Your privacy and trust matter to us.

Dining Services

The Department of Dining Services is proud to manage all on-campus food service operations. We provide daily meals in multiple locations on both undergraduate campuses, offering a wide variety of menu options to meet diverse tastes and dietary needs. In addition to our dining halls, we operate several convenient on-campus stores and vending machines, perfect for grabbing a quick snack or drink between classes. Our team is committed to serving you, and we're always happy to work with individuals who have specific dietary requirements.

We conduct a strictly kosher operation, under the stringent rabbinical supervision of the Kashruth Division of the Orthodox Union (OU).

Have suggestions, concerns, or special requests? Don't hesitate to reach out—we're here to help.

Disability Services

The Office of Disability Services collaborates with students, faculty, and staff to provide reasonable accommodations and services to students with disabilities. In serving as a resource to the Yeshiva University community, our goal is to provide access to campus programs and activities, thereby empowering students with disabilities to actualize their full academic and personal potentials.

Yeshiva University provides reasonable accommodations to students who submit documentation from a qualified professional to the Office of Disability Services in a timely fashion. Reasonable accommodations and other related services are individualized based on each student's disability-related documentation and needs, as well as YU program requirements.

Accommodations include, but are not limited to:

- Testing accommodations
- Use of a computer for exams
- Materials in alternate format
- Provision of assistive technology

To schedule an appointment, Beren Campus students should email BerenODS@yu.edu and Wilf Campus students should email WilfODS@yu.edu.

Residence Life

The Office of Residence Life works to make Yeshiva University feel like home. We aim to provide students who live on-campus with a comfortable, safe, and supportive environment for study, spiritual growth, relaxation, and fun.

We oversee the day-to-day operations of the on-campus residence halls, and manage a team of live-in Graduate Assistants, Head Residents Advisors, and Resident Advisors (RAs) who are dedicated to ensuring a meaningful on campus living experience.". RAs plan communal programming and provide individual support and connection for residents with the goal of creating an inclusive and nurturing community on their floors and throughout the res halls.

Contact us for:

- Questions about your housing assignment
- Maintenance issues in your res hall room
- Help navigating roommate disagreements
- Information about how RAs enrich the experience on campus (and how you might be able to become an RA one day too!)

Security

The safety of our students, faculty, staff and visitors is one of our top priorities at Yeshiva University. The Department of Security is committed to providing and maintaining the highest quality public safety services. Our security officers are posted in all University buildings as well as in all residence halls 24 hours a day when classes are in session. We also provide additional coverage for special events.

Please contact us immediately in such cases as theft or vandalism, suspected intruders, dangerous conditions, medical emergencies, and fire or smell of smoke. Additionally, we operate a regular schedule of shuttle services for the Manhattan campuses, including custom group transportation, and are here to help you with your parking questions and requests.

Shevet Glaubach Center for Career Strategy and Professional Development

The Shevet Glaubach Center for Career Strategy and Professional Development uses a career strategy model based on communities, or "industry clusters", called Connections and Partnerships for Success (CAPS). Each CAPS community is led by a career adviser and provides an opportunity to connect to specific, tailored industry resources and programs, and advice from alumni and faculty professionals who share an interest or expertise within each community's industries. Our communities encourage students to explore career opportunities other than those based on major alone.

We are available to assist you with:

- In-person and virtual career advising appointments to help with your in-college and post-graduation professional journey and with creating an action plan to get you there
- Mentoring opportunities to learn from our successful and helpful alumni network
- Internship and job postings through the YU CareerLink (which you can learn about at the SGC)
- Career/major fact sheets about job titles, positions, and functions
- Career panels, job/internship search workshops, and networking events throughout the year
- Graduate school advisement
- Professional communications seminars to develop your presentation skills; and
- Online resources for researching companies and practicing

Student Employment

The Human Resources department has set up a special site to assist students with finding on-campus employment opportunities. There are two ways to find a job:

- Contact the department for which you'd like to work and inquire about opportunities
- Sign in to the online job listing system (search "YU Student Employee" in Keywords or Position Type)

Once the hiring manager is identified, discuss with them the job and/or send them your resume and if you are selected for the position, you will receive an email with a formal job offer.

The offer email will include a link to officially apply for the position and Student Recruitment will follow up with you.

International students working inside the U.S. will need a social security number (SSN) to report their earnings to the government. Students who need an SSN can find information about the SSN application process on the International Student website.

Student Health

Yeshiva University has partnered with Antidote Health to offer our undergraduate students 24/7 access to qualified physicians via telehealth. Virtual appointments can be arranged within minutes and provide medical guidance, diagnosis, and prescriptions when needed. We expect this service will meet the needs of the vast majority of student medical issues. For those instances in which a physical exam or lab work are required, many local urgent cares and walk-in clinics are conveniently located close to our campuses. For more information and guidance, see the Antidote Setup Guide or visit AntidoteHealth.com

Antidote customer service is available via the following channels:

Student Life

In a fast-changing world, an on-campus experience is irreplaceable, and even more so in a place rooted in Jewish values and timeless traditions. Through active membership in the YU community you can explore who you are, what you believe in, and how you want to shape the world. This growth does not just take place in the classroom or beit midrash: you will engage in learning alongside like-minded peers, involve yourself in long-term projects with lasting impact, and develop a sense of service and responsibility to your community and the world.

The Office of Student Life (OSL) helps make that personal progress happen. As YU's hub for the undergraduate experience, we help you meet new people, take on new interests, and grow as a leader and in your Avodat Hashem (service of God).

What we do:

- Shape meaningful and exciting co-curricular experiences that emerge from and speak to our Jewish tradition and values
- Welcome every student and help them find their place in campus life
- Cultivate leaders through hands-on responsibility and mentorship
- Support the student-driven organizations, activities, and initiatives that make YU a vibrant, values-driven community

What we help you do:

- Be Engaged: attend any of hundreds of events, speakers, celebrations, and experiences throughout the year, on- and off-campus
- Be Involved: join some of nearly 100 student organizations across academic interests, service, and exploration; take on roles student government and representation; and serve in positions for Orientation and throughout the year
- Be of Service: lead community service and social action initiatives; develop ways of giving back to the community on campus and beyond

Come by our offices whenever! We love student drop-ins, and we're always happy to share a snack, answer a question, and point out what's upcoming. CampusGroups is our platform for student and department groups and events: visit yeshiva.campusgroups.com to see what you can join, attend, learn from, and enjoy.

Respect, Title IX, Title VI

Everyone at the University has the right to work and learn in an environment that promotes equal opportunities for all. The University prohibits discriminatory practices, harassment and sexual misconduct of any kind. Each semester, we work to raise awareness and provide information, support, and resources to anyone in the community who may be seeking assistance and/or education.

Students and employee-victims have the right (i) to make a report to the University's Security Department, local law enforcement and/or State Police or choose not to report; (ii) to report the incident to the University; (iii) to be protected by the University from retaliation for reporting an incident (or testifying or assisting in a proceeding); and (iv) to receive assistance and resources from the University.

All members of the campus community have the right to have disclosures of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault treated seriously and to make their own decisions about whether or not to disclose or participate in the conduct or criminal justice process, free from pressure by the University or retaliation for reporting an incident.

A report to the University will result in outreach from staff, offer of supportive measures, and information on options for resolution. Anyone (including a victim or a third party) who has knowledge of a suspected violation of University policy may report an incident.

We encourage you to visit the Title IX and Title VI websites for additional information and resources.

In case of an emergency after hours, call YU Security (646-592-4660) or Hatzalah (718-230-1000)

The National free 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline is also available 24/7/365 if you need support for yourself or another person. Call, text, or chat with a skilled judgement-free 988 Lifeline counselor for help during difficult moments anytime, day or night. https://988lifeline.org/

Torah and Spiritual Life (Beren)

The Office of Torah and Spiritual Life is at the heart of the Beren Campus experience, fostering an environment where students can continue to grow intellectually, spiritually, and personally throughout their years on the Beren campus of Yeshiva University. Through daily shiurim, meaningful religious life-cycle programming, weekly on and off campus Shabbat experiences, and opportunities for individual religious guidance, the office provides countless avenues for students to deepen their connection to Torah and Jewish life. Dean of Torah and Spiritual Life Shoshana Schechter, Senior Campus Rabbi and Rosh Beit Midrash Rabbi Azi Fine, and our campus couple, Rabbi Yosef and Gitty Tropp, are always available to support students, offer guidance, and serve as mentors and role models.

The Office of Torah and Spiritual Life is dedicated to helping every student maximize her personal spiritual growth while balancing the opportunities and challenges of college life. Working closely with academic departments and student life offices, the team creates a campus culture where Torah learning extends far beyond the classroom. Whether through extracurricular learning, Shabbat programming, holiday celebrations, or one-on-one conversations, students are encouraged to develop meaningful relationships with faculty and staff who are invested in their religious development and personal well-being.

An integral part of this support network is our Mashgiach/Mashgichot Program. The Mashgichot are dedicated faculty members who are available to all students for personal and religious guidance, serving as trusted mentors and outstanding role models throughout their college experience. While every student is encouraged to build relationships with the Mashgichot, each incoming student is paired with a Mashgiach or Mashgicha to provide individualized support and help ease the transition to college and campus life. Complementing this initiative is the Madrichot Program, led by Mrs. Rachel Ciment, the director of spiritual guidance, in which carefully selected upperclasswomen organize specialized programming, foster community, and help new students integrate into the Beren Campus from their very first days. Together, these programs provide a strong foundation of mentorship, friendship, and Torah values that support students throughout their years at Yeshiva University.

Writing Centers

The YU Writing Centers offer friendly and comfortable environments where members of the university receive free one-with-one writing advice and feedback from trained and dedicated tutors from a variety of majors. We operate on the principle that a powerful way that people learn to improve their writing is through engagement with others. Respectful of the needs of different individuals, disciplines, and contexts, we facilitate conversations to help writers articulate themselves more clearly in diverse types of texts, whether academic, professional, or creative.

Tutors can help you with any kind of writing and at any stage of the writing process, including:

- Getting started on assignments for any class
- Organizing papers for your major
- Editing applications for jobs or graduate and professional schools
- Polishing creative writing for publication
- Gaining confidence in your abilities as a writer
