Consent Form for Electronic Thesis Storage

The Honors Program submits honors theses, in electronic format, to YU's Mendel Gottesman Library. The Library provides entries for the theses in the YULIS catalog and includes links to the full text. To access the actual text, users are prompted to enter their YU off campus login. By signing below, you consent to make your thesis available in this manner. [If you do not want the Library to make your thesis so available, when you submit your thesis to the Honors Program, you must include a notice signed by you that you deny permission for it to be submitted to the Library.]

Additionally, your signature below affirms that, in submitting your thesis, you are representing that your thesis is original and genuine, you are its sole and exclusive author and owner, it does not infringe on another's intellectual property or other right, and it does not contain any subject matter which is unlawful. You understand that you cannot reproduce any textual or graphic material that is the property of another without such party's consent (unless the law permits you to do so), and you will provide hyperlinks to any such textual or graphic material in the thesis instead.
