

Undergraduate/Graduate Opportunities

Law

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Honors Internship Program

The Honors Internship Program (HIP) is ideal for undergraduate students between their junior and senior years, as well as graduate students pursuing a master's degree, JD, or PhD, this paid internship can be a direct pipeline to full-time employment after college. This is a unique opportunity for students to learn and work alongside our professionals.

Interns work on a variety of projects, including (but not limited to): analyzing crime data, developing portals to facilitate the exchange of information between law enforcement agencies and the FBI, supporting operations, and aiding with divisions audits to ensure compliance with FBI regulation.

Arts

Kress Foundation History of Art Institutional Fellowships and Conservation Fellowships

History of Art Institutional Fellowships are awarded to pre-doctoral students for two-year research appointments at one of six European host institutions. Conservation Fellowships are awarded for training in advanced conservation at a museum or conservation facility.

Education

James Madison Graduate Fellowships

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation offers $24,000 James Madison Graduate Fellowships to individuals desiring to become outstanding teachers of the American Constitution at the secondary school level. Fellowship applicants compete only against other applicants from the states of their legal residence. As funding permits, the Foundation plans to offer one fellowship per state per year.

Law

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Honors Internship Program

The Honors Internship Program (HIP) is ideal for undergraduate students between their junior and senior years, as well as graduate students pursuing a master's degree, JD, or PhD, this paid internship can be a direct pipeline to full-time employment after college. This is a unique opportunity for students to learn and work alongside our professionals.

Interns work on a variety of projects, including (but not limited to): analyzing crime data, developing portals to facilitate the exchange of information between law enforcement agencies and the FBI, supporting operations, and aiding with divisions audits to ensure compliance with FBI regulation.

Humanities

Leo Baeck Institute-New York/Berlin Fellowships

Leo Baeck Institute supports new research on German-Jewish culture and history through the following fellowships. Ph.D. candidates and academics working on topics related to the German-Jewish community in a variety of disciplines are encouraged to apply.

Psychology

Psi Chi International Honor Society in Psychology – Unrestricted Travel Grants

The travel costs offset by the Unrestricted Travel Grants helps Psi Chi-involved students, recent graduates, and doctorate-holding members with otherwise limited available funding benefit from the experience and opportunities obtained from presenting a paper or poster at a psychology-related convention (excluding EPA, MPA, RMPA, SEPA, SWPA, and WPA).

American Psychological Association Grants, scholarships, and awards.

APA Dissertation and Fellowship Awards

Science and Technology

Homeland Security Cybersecurity Internship Program

The Cybersecurity Internship Program is designed to give current high school and college students an opportunity to work alongside cyber leaders with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Interns are recruited from the nation's high school, undergraduate, and graduate programs and will have the opportunity to apply concepts, protocols and tools acquired through coursework in the real world by working with cybersecurity/information technology experts or in cybersecurity/information technology support areas. Internships focus on DHS mission areas and include identification and analysis of malicious code, forensics analysis, incident handling, intrusion detection and prevention, software assurance, data management, cloud/web services, and network operations.