Workload Guidelines***

The maximum workload per semester, including Core, is seven (7) courses. This includes graduate courses taken at AGS and BRGS, and any courses taken off-campus.

The following guidelines apply to summer courses:

- A maximum of 4 credits may be taken during a 4-week period.
- A maximum of 7 credits may be taken during a 5-week period.
- A maximum of 8 credits may be taken during a 6-week period.
- A maximum of 10 credits may be taken during any one summer.

Please note the following:

1. Courses with laboratories and recitations count as one course.
2. Courses with fieldwork (e.g. Education) count as one course.
3. Harmony and Ear Training constitute one course.
4. Physical Education courses do not count toward the 7-course workload.
5. One (1) credit Independent Studies, Internships, Hebrew, Applied Music, and a 1.5 credit FIT course are not counted in the workload for students whose GPA is 3.0 or above. They do count as courses for students whose GPA is below 3.0.
6. FIT: Two courses whose total credits do not exceed 3.5 count as one course towards the SCW workload.
