

Ferkauf Doctoral Programs FAQs

Q. What doctoral programs does Ferkauf Graduate School of Psychology offer?

We offer three: 1) Clinical Psychology Program (PsyD), 2) Clinical Psychology Health Emphasis Program (PhD) and 3) School-Clinical Child Psychology Program (PsyD).

Q. How long is each program?

Each program is designed to be completed in five years. Students must complete four years of course work (including externships) and a full-time internship in their fifth year.

Q. When is the application deadline?

Applications, including all related documents, must be received by the following dates:

- Clinical Psychology Program (PsyD): January 1
- Clinical Psychology Health Emphasis Program (PhD): January 15
- School-Clinical Child Psychology Program (PsyD): February 1

Q. Do I have to be a psychology major to apply?

No. However, all applicants are expected to have taken roughly 15 undergraduate credits in psychology, including statistics, experimental and abnormal. Other prerequisites apply.

Q. Does Ferkauf have a treatment clinic where students can do their training?

Yes. Our Parnes Clinic is an outpatient facility where students treat patients from the community and receive training and supervision.

Q. Are the GREs required?

Yes. GRE scores must be received by the application deadline stated above for each program. Our Institution Code is 2995.

Q. What percentage of students receives APPIC member internships?

In 2010, 100% of students obtained APPIC member internships.

Q. Whom can I contact for more information about my application?

Contact the Office of Admissions at 718.430.3820 or augusta@yu.edu with any questions regarding your application.