

Dialysis Social Workers

The Rogosin Institute (RI) is a non-profit medical care and research organization affiliated with New York Presbyterian Hospital and Weill Cornell Medicine. Rogosin is one of the premier centers for the diagnosis and management of kidney disease in the country. The Institute also treats patients with diabetes, hypertension, lipid disorders and cancer and conducts research in these areas.

The Rogosin Institute is recruiting for experienced Dialysis Social Workers. Job duties include performing patients' assessments, education and counseling services to dialysis patients and their families, liaison and referral to community agencies and participation in interdisciplinary team meetings.

We require a Master's Degree in Social Work, Current NYS License (LMSW or LCSW). Prior experience working in an outpatient dialysis clinic is a plus.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package.

Interested applicants should forward an updated resume and salary requirement to did9005@nyp.org
