Instructions for Completing Application for Admission

1. Students apply either to the Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik Semikha Program, the Pre-Semikha Program, or the Ludwig Jesselson Kollel Chaverim (Chaver Program) Program. While it is envisioned that most of the students will have attended Yeshiva College, graduates from other college institutions may apply as well, in accordance with the requirements set forth below.

   a. Requirements for admission to the Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik Semikha Program include:
      i. A Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university. Students with senior status at Yeshiva College or the Sy Syms School of Business may be considered for acceptance to the Semikha program during their senior year of college on an individual basis, based on their length of study in Israel.
      ii. A satisfactory record in Talmud and Jewish Studies beyond the secondary school level for at least four years. Successful completion of any of the Yeshiva College Undergraduate Torah Studies Programs will automatically count towards fulfillment of this requirement.
      iii. An entrance examination (bechinya) demonstrating proficiency in Talmud.
      iv. A personal interview.

   b. Requirements for admission to the Pre-Semikha Program (for those not yet ready to be accepted to the Semikha program) include:
      i. A Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university.
      ii. An entrance examination (bechinya).
      iii. A personal interview.

   c. Applicants to the Ludwig Jesselson Kollel Chaverim (Chaver Program) are evaluated on an individual basis. They require:
      i. A Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university.
      ii. An entrance examination (bechinya).
      iii. A personal interview.

2. Please submit the following items to the RIETS Office:

   a. A completed application form.
   b. A $50 non-refundable application fee made payable to RIETS.
   c. Two recent passport-sized photos.
   d. One official copy of your transcript from each undergraduate and graduate institution attended. Student copies of the transcript are acceptable for Yeshiva University schools.
   e. Two letters of recommendation, one from the student’s most recent rebbe and one from his congregational rabbi.
   f. Applicants who are not U.S. citizens: Foreign Student Questionnaire.
   g. Applicants who are not native English speakers: the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).

3. Ordination by the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary is contingent upon the successful completion of one of the following co-requisite programs. Applications for the Masters programs are available from the individual schools or from the YU website. (http://yu.edu/academics/graduate-schools/)

   a. Master of Science, Azrieli Graduate School of Jewish Education and Administration.
   b. Master of Arts, Bernard Revel Graduate School.
   d. Machshevet Yisrael Program, RIETS.
   e. Intensive Kollel Program, RIETS (including the Marcos and Adina Katz Kollel at the Wilf Campus and the Kollel at the Caroline and Joseph S. Gruss Institute in Jerusalem) Kollel Applications are available at www.riets.edu.

4. For more information about RIETS programs or the RIETS curriculum, please visit www.riets.edu or contact the RIETS office, riets@yu.edu or (646) 592-4455.
