  (Not Academic Computing)

No Pirates:
- Do not download or share copyright protected files. It may result in a disciplinary hearing with the University and loss of internet access.
  (movies, music, books, etc)

FIOS INFORMATION:
- Yu Wireless is available in the academic buildings, not FIOS.
- Internet service, in its existing 50/25 speed is being covered by the University. You are not responsible for any additional fees. Yeshiva University is not providing cable television service, which is not permitted in University Housing. There may be ramifications if you attempt to adjust these Verizon services.
- The router power plug must remain plugged into the wall outlet at all times.
- There is a uniform login for most lounges and fitness centers in Brookdale, Schottenstein, 35th Street and 36th Street Residence Halls. The username/ESSID is BEREN and the password/WPA2 is YUSTUDENT.
- On the WiFi campus, the username/ESSID for most lounges is WILF and the password/WPA2 is YUSTUDENT.

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT:
- It is the policy of Verizon FIOS that there may not be any acts of copyright infringement (i.e. illegal downloading, illegal file sharing, online piracy).
- If copyright laws appear to be violated, it may result in a disciplinary hearing with the University and immediate or permanent loss of internet access.
- Illegally transferring copyrighted material violates a fundamental tenant of Yeshiva University’s moral code. Yeshiva University expects all members of the YU community to comply with U.S. Copyright Laws. Students who use file sharing software to transfer material that they do not have rights to may be putting themselves and the University at significant risk. It may not always be obvious that your computer is sharing copyrighted files, but it is your responsibility to be sure that it is not.

For any questions regarding the login process, please contact your RA.
Please direct all technical questions or problems to berenfios@yu.edu.
