

The Bernard Revel Graduate School of Jewish Studies

invites you to the inaugural event of this year's special lecture series

Nehama Leibowitz and Tanakh Study: Yesterday and Today

PHOTO MONTAGE: JUDAH S. HARRIS VISUAL MARKETING

Tuesday, October 22, 2013

8 p.m.

Furst Hall, 5th floor
500 West 185th Street
New York, NY 10033

Parking available in the YU lot (E) on Amsterdam Avenue and 183rd Street

Recollections of Nehama in 1930's Jerusalem

Mrs. Esther Manischewitz
of Teaneck, NJ

A scion of a prominent rabbinic family in Jerusalem, Mrs. Manischewitz was Leibowitz's close neighbor in Qiryat Moshe beginning in 1930, and her student in the Jerusalem Teacher's Seminary from 1938–1942.

Nehama Leibowitz's Lasting Impact on Bible Scholarship

Mordechai Z. Cohen, Professor of Bible and Associate Dean,
Bernard Revel Graduate School

Professor Cohen studied with Leibowitz in the 1980's during his Revel doctoral studies. He has published extensively on the history of Jewish Bible interpretation and its relation to modern literary analysis of biblical poetry and narrative, an intersection of subjects of keen interest to Nehama Leibowitz

Yeshiva University
BERNARD REVEL GRADUATE SCHOOL OF JEWISH STUDIES

www.yu.edu/revel

This event is sponsored by the Dr. Monique and Mordecai D. Katz Endowed Lecture Fund.

Support from generous sponsors will enable Revel to initiate programs that promote Jewish scholarship and underscore its relevance for the broader Jewish community.

For information on upcoming sponsorship opportunities, please email Rabbi Ari Rockoff at rockoff@yu.edu or call 212.960.5400, ext. 6168.